

Congratulations, Ireland!

You are the only people in the EU who will have a referendum on the Fiscal Treaty

Copenhagen the 25th of May 2012

Dear Irish people,

Ireland stands as the only country of the 25 signatories to the EU Fiscal Treaty that will subject that Treaty to a referendum. On 31st of May, Irish citizens will have the chance to determine their future.

In our country, Denmark, a large majority wants a referendum, but a majority in our Parliament seems to be afraid of the voice of the People. Consequently they want to ratify the Fiscal Treaty without a referendum and without a real debate.

But we feel confident that you are debating the democratic as well as the social and economic consequences of the Treaty, and we congratulate you on your referendum. You will be voting for all the citizens in the EU-countries who have signed the Fiscal Treaty.

Ireland is once more the democratic light in the EU.
